

Pete Antos-Ketcham

Education Coordinator/Facilities Manager for The Green Mountain Club. 12 Years experience in visitor education and trail and overnight site Management along the AT/LT in Vermont and New Hampshire. Principal author of ATC's comprehensive, technical recreation planning manual on backcountry sanitation. B.S. Environmental Studies. LNT Master.

Brent Bailey

Director, Appalachia Program, The Mountain Institute. Oversees education, environment and community development projects designed to sustain mountain environments and cultures. Natural resource expert in design, development and management projects structures to conserve biodiversity, cultural patters, community cohesion and ecological processes.

Anthony (Tony) Barrett

Life member of Maine AT Club and ATC. Founding board member of the Maine Appalachian Trail Land Trust and Vice Chair, Board of Trustees of the East Coast Greenway Alliance. Volunteer with Maine Island Trail Association and serves on Stewardship Committee of Harpswell Land Trust. AT Thru-hiker.

Larry Ely

AMC volunteer trail steward for section of NH AT; trail steward region leader for AMC's volunteer trail stewards for Northern Mahoosuc Region in Maine. NE RPC representative for AMC White Mountains Region.. Former AMC Assistant North Country Volunteer Coordinator. Former chairman of Falmouth, Maine Conservation Commission.

Robert Kyle

Retired; life member ATC, ODATC and NBATC; ODATC board member, former ATC BOM member; Konnarock veteran, current trail overseer/maintainer. Completed AT in four sections. SO VA RPC representative.

Jeff Marion

Nationally recognized Recreation Ecologist with extensive experience in public land management planning and policy. Founding member of LNT Board of Directors. Strong academic background in Natural Resource Management. Experience working with NPS, USFS and ATC. Long-distance AT hiker.

Sandi Marra

Served ATC Board of Managers since 1999. Chair Facilities Committee, Member Strategic Planning Committee, Land Trust Committee, Human Resources Committee. Member Planning and Transition Team for ATC reorganization. Life Member ATC; Honorary Life Member PATC. 21 years of Club leadership experience including President, Vice President and Secretary. Long-distance AT hiker, overseer; manager Blackburn AT Center.

Hawk Metheny—Chair

Served ATC Board of Managers since 2003. Chair- Trail and Land Management Committee, Member Recruitment and Development Committee. Backcountry Management Specialist AMC. 15 years A.T. overnight site and Trail management experience. Leave No Trace Master course instructor. Former member Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics Educational Review Committee. B.S. Natural Resource Management. Thru-hiked the A.T., John Muir Trail, and the Pacific Crest Trail. Sectioned hiked the Long Trail.

Roger L. Moore

Joined ATC Board of Directors as Secretary in 2005. AT thru-hiker 1973 and ATC member since 1973. Four years AMC trail crew, 8 years as AMC Trails Coordinator then Director of their National Volunteer Project. 14 years on faculty at NC State University teaching, researching, and writing related to outdoor recreation, natural resources management, and trails. Experience on a variety of boards and advisory panels for outdoor recreation and conservation-oriented organizations.

Steve Paradis

ATC Life Member; served on ATC Board of Managers from 2003 (Strategic Planning Committee, Technology Committee, Finance Committee). Member DOC, AT corridor monitor, corridor monitor coordinator. Member of ALDHA, past Membership Secretary. AT thru-hiker. Graduate degrees in engineering (MIT) and business (Stanford).

Dennis Shaffer

Over 20 years of experience in land protection. Currently Northern New England Field Office Director for the Trust for Public Land. Former Trust Administrator for AT Land Trust. Former Executive Director, Green Mountain Club. Former AHS board member; board member of the Waterman Alpine Stewardship fund, and AT and LT thru hiker.

Jerry Seabolt

Immediate past President, GATC; also served 2 years as Conservation Director and 3 years as Treasurer. SO RPC Representative

Marianne Skeen

12 years of ATC's Board of Managers, 4 years Southern Vice Chair. 25 years of club leadership within GATC. Strong experience working in partnership with USFS. Season crew experience.

Mary Margaret Sloan

Former President, American Hiking Society with strong emphasis on creation and preservation of hiking trails. Recovering attorney. Served on multiple ATC and PATC committees; former Conservation Chair, PATC. Active participant in ATC's reorganization project. Serving on the Guy Waterman Alpine Stewardship Fund and Tanzania Education Fund.

Kerry Snow

ATC Mid Atlantic Regional Partnership Committee Chair, former PATC Supervisor of Trails, former member PATC Executive Committee and Council, 10 years as PATC District Trails Manager, 10 years as PATC trail crew leader and trail overseer, 8 years as Shenandoah National Park summer crew leader, served as PATC cabin overseer and hut overseer, served on ATC Konnarock and Mid-Atlantic Crews.